LETTER OF COOPERATION BETWEEN
PUNJAB ENGINEERING COLLEGE (DEEMED UNIVERSITY), CHANDIGARH
AND ABB LIMITED (INDIA)

In India, Punjab Engineering College (Deemed University), Chandigarh is one of the foremost centers in the northern region for engineering education and research. It is located at Sector 12, Chandigarh-160012, India.

ABB Limited (India), having its presence in more than 100 countries is a global leader in the field of power and automation technologies that enable utility and industry customers to improve their performance. Its headquarters are located at Zurich Switzerland.

This cooperation between Punjab Engineering College (Deemed University) Chandigarh and ABB Limited (India) is intended to promote projects and research activities at Punjab Engineering College (Deemed University) in the area of robotics.

ABB Limited (India) have offered Punjab Engineering College (Deemed University) a multi-user floating license of Robot simulation software Robot Studio, with no liability, for use by students, staff and faculty. The software would be used for teaching, research and project related activities only. Punjab Engineering College (Deemed University) has also expressed interest in receiving an ABB Manipulator to demonstrate the practical engineering efficacy of ABB solutions in industry. If it is made available, it would be used at the institute for educational purposes only.

This Cooperation will be reviewed after an initial period of three years from the date that the representatives of both institutions affix their signature to the agreement.
